Notes to Interim Financial Statements (unaudited)

1 Interim financial information

The financial information as at May 31, 2010 and for the three(3)-month and nine (9)-month periods ended May 31, 2010 and 2009, are unaudited; however, in the opinion of management, all adjustments necessary to fairly present the results of these periods have been included. The adjustments were of a normal recurring nature. Interim results may not necessarily be indicative of results anticipated for the year.

These interim financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Canada and use the same accounting policies and methods used in the preparation of the Company's most recent annual financial statements. All disclosures required for annual financial statements have not been included in these financial statements. These interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's most recent annual financial statements for the year ended August 31, 2009.

2 Incorporation and nature of activities

The Company, incorporated under Part 1A of the Québec Companies Act, is in the business of acquiring and exploring mining properties. It has not yet determined whether its properties contain ore reserves that are economically recoverable. The recoverability of the amounts shown for mining properties is dependent upon the existence of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain necessary financing to complete the exploration and development of its properties, and future profitable production or proceeds from the disposal of properties.

These interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and on the basis of a going concern assumption, meaning the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations.

Management is periodically seeking additional forms of financing through the issuance of new equity instruments and the exercise of stock options to continue its operations, and while it has been successful in doing so in the past, there can be no assurance it will be able to do so in the future. Without new funding being available, the Company may be unable to continue its operations, and amounts realized for assets may be less than amounts reflected in these financial statements.

Although management has taken steps to verify the titles to mining properties in which the Company has an interest in accordance with industry standards for the current stage of exploration of such properties, these procedures do not guarantee the Company's title. Property titles may be subject to unregistered prior agreements and/or may not comply with regulatory requirements.

7 Debenture

On November 20, 2008, the Company issued a five(5)-year unsecured debenture of $500,000 bearing interest at 12% annually. The opening balance of that debt has been decreased by $92,000 as a discount on debenture so as to consider an effective interest rate of 20%. An accretion of debenture of $13,283 is also reflected in the earnings. The principal is to be reimbursed in cash over a five(5)-year period at $100,000 per year.

8 Convertible debentures

The Company completed a private placement of $940,000 in unsecured convertible debentures. The debentures mature on November 20, 2011, and bear interest at the rate of 12% per annum, payable semi-annually either in cash or in shares. Non-interest bearing if the share trades at $1.35 and over for the six(6)-month periods ending November 20, 2010, May 20, 2011 and November 20, 2011, respectively. The principal is convertible at the option of the holder into common shares of the Company. The principal is convertible into units at a price of $0.54 until November 20, 2010. Each unit consists of one common share and one share purchase warrant. Each share purchase warrant entitles the holder to purchase one common share at $0.65. After November 20, 2010, the debentures are convertible into units at a price of $0.60; each unit consists of one common share and one-half of a share purchase warrant. Each full warrant entitles the holder to purchase one common share at a price of $0.75.

The Company reimbursed a $250,000 secured convertible loan and the accrued interest by issuing 477,847 units at an average price of $0.5447 per unit, each consisting of one (1) common share and a warrant having an average exercise price of $0.6565 and valid until November 20, 2010.

The convertible debenture is accounted for in accordance with its substance and is presented in the financial statements in its component parts, measured at their respective fair values at the time of issue. The liability component has been calculated as the present value of the required principal and interest payments discounted at a rate approximating the interest rate that would have been applicable to non-convertible debt at the time the debenture was issued.

Notes to Interim Financial Statements (unaudited)9 Share capital

In December 2009, the Company closed two (2) private placements for a total of $3,376,125 representing 1,434,167 Units at $0.75 per unit and 2,675,000 Flow-Through Shares at $0.86 per share. Each unit is comprised of one (1) common share and one-half (½) common share purchase warrant, each full warrant entitling the holder to purchase an additional common share at an exercise price of $0.95 for a period of 24 months. The Underwriter's commission and finder's fee totalled $208,107.

Warrants have been presented separately and recorded at a value of $265,321 based on the Black-Scholes option pricing model using the following assumptions: risk free interest of 1.50%, expected life of 2 years, annualized volatility rate of 105% and dividend rate of 0%.

Flow-through shares

The proceed received from the issuance of flow-through shares amounted to $2,300,500 and is committed to exploration expenses. In February 2010, the Company renounced $2,300,500 of qualifying expenditures to the investors. The future income tax cost related to the resulting temporary difference would be approximately $667,145 and is recorded as a share issue expense.

The Company's financial instruments as at May 31, 2010 consist of cash and cash equivalents, amounts receivable from related party and others, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and debentures. The fair value of these financial instruments approximates their carrying value due to their short-term maturity or to current market rates. It is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest or credit risks arising from these financial instruments.

The fair value of available-for-sale long-term investments is established using the bid price on the most beneficial active market for this instrument that is readily available to the Company. When a bid price is not available, the Company uses the closing price of the most recent transaction on such instrument.

12 Financial instruments, financial risks and capital management - Cont'd

Financial risks

The Company is exposed to various financial risks, such as credit risk, liquidity risk and interest rate risk from its use of financial instruments.

Credit risk

The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to cash and cash equivalents, amounts receivable and long-term investments. Cash and cash equivalents and long-term investments are deposited in Canadian chartered bank accounts or invested in a diversified manner in securities having an investment-grade rating, from which management believes the risk of loss to be minimal.

The credit risk associated with amounts receivable from partners arises from the possibility that the partners may not be able to repay their debts. These receivables result from option payments and exploration work carried out on properties under option and operated by the Company. This risk is minimal because the net amount is not significant.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company may be unable to fulfill its financial obligations related to financial liabilities. The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidities to meet liabilities when due. The Company anticipates that its funds are sufficient to support its corporate and administrative obligations on a continuous basis. Management is evaluating other alternatives to secure the necessary financing so the Company can continue as a going concern. Nevertheless, there is no assurance that these initiatives will be successful. The amount and timing of additional funding will be impacted by, among other things, the strength of the capital markets. As at May 31, 2010, the Company has enough available funds to meet its current and future financial liabilities arising from its commitments for the current year.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company has not entered into any derivative contracts to manage this risk. The Company's policy as it relates to its cash balances is to invest excess cash in financial instruments guaranteed by and held with a Canadian chartered bank.

As at May 31, 2010, the Company's exposure to interest rate risk is summarized as follows:

Cash and cash equivalents	Variable interest rate
Amounts receivable	Non-interest bearing
Long-term investments	Non-interest bearing
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	Non-interest bearing
Debentures payable	See notes 7 and 8

12 Financial instruments, financial risks and capital management - Cont'd

The Company considers the items included in shareholders' equity as capital components.

There were no significant changes in the Company's approach to capital management during the period ended May 31, 2010, and the Company is not subject to any capital requirements related to externally imposed regulations or contractual issues, unless the Company closes a flow-through private placement in which case the funds can only be applied to exploration expenses.
